

ITALIAN FILM FESTIVAL OF ST. LOUIS

Presents the St. Louis premiere of 6 Italian films at Washington University, Brown Hall 100

Friday, March 31, 2006 at 8 PM

MANUALE D'AMORE (MANUAL OF LOVE)

2005, Giovanni Veronesi

A romantic comedy chronicling the four chapters of love - "Falling in Love," "The Crisis," "The Betrayal," and "The Abandonment."

Saturday, April 1, 2006 at 8 PM

BUONGIORNO, NOTTE (GOOD MORNING, NIGHT)

2003, Marco Bellocchio

Rome, 1978. The complex world of the "anni di piombo" is seen through the eyes of a young terrorist who belongs to the armed brigade and is involved in the kidnapping of politician Aldo Moro.

Friday, April 7, 2006 at 8 PM

IL FUGGIASCO (THE FUGITIVE)

2003, Andrea Manni

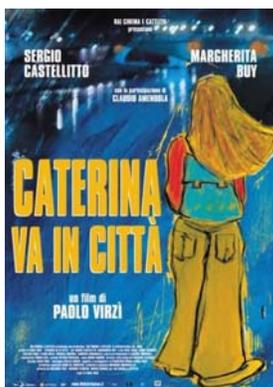

A thrilling suspense film about a man who is on a race against time to prove his innocence for a murder for which he is wrongfully accused.

Saturday, April 8, 2006 at 8 PM

LA VITA CHE VORREI (THE LIFE I WANT)

2004, Giuseppe Piccioni

An established actor and a young actress develop a relationship while working together on films. Their mutual attraction and passion draw them together while also pulling them apart.

Friday, April 14, 2006 at 8 PM

CATERINA VA IN CITTA' (CATHERINE IN THE BIG CITY)

2003, Paolo Virzi

When Caterina's family transfers to Rome, she is thrust into a world where politics plays a significant social role and finds that the more she tries to fit in, the worse her dilemma gets.

Saturday, April 15, 2006 at 8 PM

I CENTO PASSI (THE HUNDRED STEPS)

2000, Marco Tullio Giordana

The movie is based on the life of Peppino Impastato, a young activist who decides to denounce the Mafia boss and the entire criminal system with a local journal and radio station.

All films are FREE and open to the public

Sponsored by the Istituto Italiano di Cultura di Chicago,
Washington University's Program in Film and Media Studies and VideoBank Communication Service Provider

For further information see www.italianfilmfestivalstlouis.com

Films are in Italian with English subtitles and in 35mm